

St. Louis Stars Surprise Wiseacers of Baseball and Gain Advantage In Championship Series Arrangements Are Formally Completed For Big World Series

NEAT GAMES AT CHICAGO

Use Of White Uniforms Here Brings Protest At Start Of Series. Doubleheaders May Be Necessary To Get Out Of Way Of World Series.

The St. Louis Stars defeated the Kansas City Monarchs in two Sunday games, the first three days out for the National Negro League championship and in doing so, upset the favorite odds of the wiseacers of baseball. Many writers and critics were loath to concede the St. Louis boys more than a single victory in the series.

Manager Taylor's youngsters came out making it three straight. Barnes had not had an off day in throwing, and Bobo had not been caught napping off first in Saturday's game there might have been another tale to tell. As it was, the Monarchs were victorious Saturday 4 to 6, going pitching by Davis on Sunday, backed by brilliant defense and a smash home run by Lamm. Barnes pitched the St. Louis club to win 6 to 3. Rain prevented the third game until Wednesday when Brown held the champions to five hits and won a 3 to 2 triumph.

Disappointment: Stars' Opening
The fans were wary in the thrill of championship preliminaries on Monday and with subdued excitement were waiting the call of "play ball" who two white uniforms were worn by the Stars. Taylor's order and mark an otherwise pale game. It had been their first game since the Kansas City Monarchs had taken the field. The game was one of the hardest played in the league. The Stars were out of the lead in the sixth and the Monarchs were out of the lead in the seventh. The game was a close one, with the Stars leading 3 to 2 in the sixth and the Monarchs leading 4 to 3 in the seventh. The game was a close one, with the Stars leading 3 to 2 in the sixth and the Monarchs leading 4 to 3 in the seventh.

Doubleheaders: A Lily
The Stars and Monarchs left for Chicago Friday where they are scheduled to play on Saturday and Sunday. The data for the opening of the World Series, Thursday, Sept. 25, bids fair to be a close one, with the Stars leading 3 to 2 in the sixth and the Monarchs leading 4 to 3 in the seventh.
